

TUTOR ANDREW NAUMANN

Although Andrew grew up in South Dakota, he is no stranger to Michigan, with uncles serving as pastors in Benton Harbor and Vassar. He is also no stranger to life at a prep school, since he attended Luther Prep, the sister school of MLS in Watertown, Wisconsin.

After LPS, he continued at Martin Luther College and Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary, with his vicar year at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Amherst, New Hampshire, home of sophomore Lena Petermann.

Tutor Naumann really enjoys woodworking, mechanics and music. He and his wife, Faith (nee Schmitzer, MLS Class of 2003), enjoy camping, backpacking and hiking. They are expecting their first child in January. Mrs. Naumann is helping in the dorm and coaching volleyball. In addition to his dormitory duties, Tutor Naumann will be teaching freshman geography.

TUTOR AMANDA DUNN

If you call the InterDorm Office and hear someone answer with a Texan accent this year, don't be surprised. Tutor Amanda Dunn is a native Texan, attending Lutheran elementary school at Lord of Life, Friendswood, TX; and Immanuel, North Richland Hills, TX, laying the foundation that she developed at Martin Luther College, in New Ulm, MN.

Amanda admits that you might hear an Asian accent instead, since he served for the past year at Nozomi Lutheran Church in Tsuchiura, Japan, as a teacher for the children of the missionaries (regular subjects) and for the Japanese (English as a Second Language).

As one of five children of Harvey and Sandra Dunn, Amanda can handle dormitory life. She will also be teaching typing and organizing intramurals.
